Istria, Poreč, Surroundings

Just a few kilometers from the sea and beautiful beaches, in an Istrian town with all necessary amenities, this lovely two-bedroom apartment on the first floor is for sale. The apartment is located in a new building with 13 units. The building has an elevator and is excellently positioned in a quiet part of town, surrounded by olive groves. Each apartment comes with two parking spaces.

Considering its size, the space is functionally well utilized. The apartment is filled with plenty of natural light. From the hallway, you enter a spacious open-plan living room and kitchen, a bathroom, a very useful utility room, and two bedrooms, one of which has access to the terrace. The apartment is heated by underfloor heating installed in all rooms and cooled by air conditioning units.

All essential amenities are available nearby.

The apartment is ideal for future owners looking for a year-round family residence or those who want to spend their summer vacation close to the sea.
